50 Years of Dedication

For the past 50 years Beth Epling has been giving her time, effort, and energy to help make Effingham County a better place.

She has worked all her life educating others about agriculture, civic endeavors, and the historical significance of our community. Beth cares so much and gives without asking anything in return.

Her enthusiasm for projects is contagious!

Thank you Beth for 50 years of serving the Effingham Fair Committee and our Community

3. Feed may be available for livestock donated by Ijon Webbs. (donated feed is delivered at the convenience of the donator. The Livestock Committee cannot guarantee a set day/time of arrival.) Feeding/Watering/Care of animals is the responsibility of the exhibitor.
4. All competitive exhibits must be property of the exhibitor, and the exhibitor must be a resident of Effingham County, subject to the decision of the Fair Committee.
5. Judges are instructed not to award premiums unless the exhibits are deemed worthy of merit. If no competition exists and exhibit is not worthy of first premium, judges may award second or third premiums according to their judgment. In order for first, second, and third premiums to be awarded to class, there must be three entries in the class.
6. All entries must be exhibited in the amount designated – failure to comply will disqualify entry.
7. All booths and exhibits may be entered during the following times: Sunday, October 13 from 2-5 pm; Monday, October 14 from 10 am – 5 pm; Tuesday, October 15 from 10 am – 8 pm; Wednesday, October 16 from 10 am – 5 pm.
8. The Effingham Fair Committee assumes no responsibility for loss by fire, theft, death or damage of any exhibit.
9. The judging of all exhibits except livestock will begin at 10 AM Thursday, October 17, 2024. No one is allowed in the building during judging, except judges.
10. In case of disaster or conditions beyond the control of Fair Committee, prizes will be on a percentage basis.
11. The public is asked not to handle exhibits or rearrange them in anyway.
12. Precautions will be taken to protect items on exhibit.
13. Business, Political or Commercial Booths available on first come first serve basis, rent $75.00. Nonprofit organizations wishing to sell items (NO FOOD), rent $35.00, items sold are subject to paying sales tax. Two (2) gate passes per booth will be given. Contact Kathy Morgan at effinghamfairbooth@gmail.com or (912) 754-5620.

THE FAIR COMMITTEE WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY ITEMS

RULES FOR INDIVIDUAL ENTRIES

1. All articles may be brought in during the following times: Sunday, October 13 from 2-5 pm; Monday, October 14 from 10 am – 5 pm; Tuesday, October 15 from 10 am – 8 pm; and Wednesday, October 16 from 10 am – 5 pm. Women's Division perishables and Youth's Division perishables may be entered on Wednesday, October 16 from 10 am – 5 pm; or Thursday, October 17 from 8:30 am – 9:30 am. Judging begins @ 10 am on Thursday, October 17. No one is allowed inside the building while judging is taking place.

2. Make entry on form available at Fair Grounds.

3. All exhibits must be the work of the residents of Effingham County, and must not have been a winning exhibit at the fair before. Must have been made this past year.

4. If 3 or more like items are received, consideration will be given to creating a class for the coming year.

5. Competent judges will be secured. Their decision will be final.

6. Judges are instructed not to award premiums unless the articles are deemed worthy of merit. If no competition exists and article is not worthy of first premium judges may award second or third premiums according to their judgment.

7. Payment will be made by check and paid on Sunday, October 27 from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. or on Monday, October 28, from 8:00 to 11:00 a.m. Entries MUST remain through the Fair in order to receive prize.

8. Judging will be on four points mainly: Quality, Appropriateness, Cleanliness, and Workmanship.

9. Judging in food preservation will be done according to appearance, texture, uniformity, pack and container.

10. Food preservation should be entered in standard glass canning jars.

11. Do not ask to remove articles from exhibit until Sunday, October 27, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. and Monday October 28, from 8:00 to 11:00 a.m.

2. Livestock will be received Sunday, October 20 from 1 - 5 pm, and Monday, October 21 from 8 am to 1 pm. Judging will be on Tuesday, October 22, Wednesday, October 23, Thursday, October 24, and Friday, October 25. Checkout will be Friday, October 25 from 9-11 pm and Saturday, October 26 from 8 am - 12 pm. Removal before 9 pm on Friday, October 25 will result in loss of prize money. Pens are assigned at check-in. NO reserving pens is allowed. Pens cannot be used as tack pens until ALL animals have been checked in and extra pens are available for use.
3. Cattle should be vaccinated for black leg and other contagious diseases before placing them on exhibit. Cattle and hogs will be tested for brucellosis and approved as free. (Check with Fair Committee one month prior to opening of fair for information on testing and health regulations.)
4. All cattle must be naturally Polled or professionally dehorned and completely healed before being shown.
5. Senior Heifer Class is composed of any heifer whose birth date is on or before August 31st of the previous year, but can not be over 27 months old. Junior Heifer Class is composed of any heifer whose birth date is on or after September 1st of the previous year through the year of the fair and must be weaned.
6. Since this is a Market Goat Show and not a Breeding Goat show, all goats have to be born on or after October 1st of the previous year and weigh a minimum of 30 lbs.
7. Swine: gilts can be shown as either a breeding gilt OR Market hog, but not both. Market hogs must weigh between 220-280 pounds.
8. An owner cannot receive more than one premium in any class, but ribbons will be given as judged. In case an owner's entries are judged for more than one place in a class the premiums will be given to the next place in order.
9. All judges' decisions will be final and premiums will be forfeited for any violations of the Fair Committee rules. All premiums can be picked up at the Fair on Sunday, October 27, from 2-5 pm or Monday, October 28 from 8-11 am following the fair or checks will be mailed to the winners as marked in the judges' premium books if address is available.
10. Judges are instructed not to award premiums unless the animals are deemed worthy of merit. If no competition exists and an animal is not worthy of first premium, judges may award second or third premiums, according to their judgment. In order for first, second and third premiums to be awarded to a class, there must be three entries in the class.
11. The Fair Committee assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to the exhibit or exhibitor, or spectators while in transit or on the fair grounds.
12. Entry forms must be completed and submitted to the livestock committee by September 15, 2024. A Google form will be emailed to the young farmers' advisors, Mr. Todd Wall, and Mr. Blake Carter to distribute to students interested in showing. All animals entered must be shown by their owner or someone designated by them. Failure to do so will result in ineligibility for showing and prizes.
13. Cattle must have both halter and neck rope (Owner responsibility).
14. Check-out times: 9-11 pm Friday, October 25, and 8 am - 12 pm Saturday, October 26.
15. Any early checkout of animals from the barn must be approved by the Livestock Chairman.
16. A minimum of five animals is needed in a class to have a Grand Champion. Classes will be set at the discretion of the Livestock Committee.
17. Age requirements for showing animals will be as follows; Goats, Lambs, Swine, and Rabbits may be shown by children 3 years and up. Cattle may be shown by children grade 4 and up.

SPECIAL YOUNG FARMERS PREMIUMS AND AWARDS

1. Additional premiums and awards will be sponsored by the Effingham County Young Farmers. Amounts will be decided by Livestock Committee of organization dependent on funds and number entries. Awards will only be provided to those entrants meeting the special rules contained in this section. This applies to cattle, goats, lambs, and swine only.
2. Recipients must be Effingham County 4-H or FFA members or pre club age to be eligible.
